

WASTE CONTRACTORS & RECYCLERS ASSOCIATION OF NSW

CHAIN OF RESPONSIBILITY

TLIF0009

Training will cover:

- An overview of the concept & legislative framework of Chain of Responsibility & the Heavy Vehicle National Laws and the principal obligations relating to Chain of Responsibility under the Heavy Vehicle National Laws
- An understanding of corporate and personal responsibilities under the legislation
- Consequences of non-compliance with the Chain of Responsibility and the Heavy Vehicle National Laws (HVNL)
- Methods and requirements to ensure compliance with fatigue, speed, load restraint, vehicle standards, mass, dimension & maintenance regulations
- Parties in the Chain of Responsibility & Parties in the extended liability provisions of the HVNL

Students will receive:

TAFE NSW Statement of Attainment (sent directly to students, not employers or WCRA)

Course manual * USI number is required for enrolment

Students must enrol online at tafensw.edu.au - link will be provided

wcra.com.au

memberservices@wcra.com.au

WASTE CONTRACTORS &
RECYCLERS ASSOCIATION
OF N.S.W

CHAIN OF RESPONSIBILITY (TLIF0009)

REGISTRATION FORM

DATE & TIME	LOCATION
Tuesday 19 th November 2024 – 8.30am	WCRA – 1 st Floor, 12-16 Daniel Street Wetherill Park NSW 2164

How to book: Complete the tables below and return to memberservices@wcra.com.au

- This workshop will run for approximately 4.5 hours & morning tea will be provided

Confirmation: An email will be sent confirming your booking once minimum numbers have been attained

Fee: $375 per participant (Inclgd. GST) – payment is strictly at time of booking

An email will be sent confirming your booking. Sessions run subject to a minimum number of 10 attendees in total. Maximum course attendance is 15. Cancellations will only be accepted in writing, up to close of business 2 weeks prior to the course.

The training will cover the following areas:

- An overview of the concept & legislative framework of Chain of Responsibility & the Heavy Vehicle National Laws
- Principal obligations relating to Chain of Responsibility under the HVNL
- An understanding of corporate and personal responsibilities under the legislation
- Consequences of non-compliance with the Chain of Responsibility and the Heavy Vehicle National Laws (HVNL)
- Duties within the individual's own role
- Methods and requirements to ensure compliance with fatigue, speed, load restraint, vehicle standards, mass, dimension & maintenance regulations
- Parties in the Chain of Responsibility & Parties in the extended liability provisions of the HVNL
- What constitutes a duty, a reasonable step, a breach and a penalty to Chain of Responsibility
- Where to locate current Chain of Responsibility information
- Action required when possible breaches of the Chain of Responsibility are identified
- Workplace policies and procedures to achieve Chain of Responsibility compliance

Students will receive: Course participants manual

EMPLOYERS PLEASE NOTE: A TAFE NSW Statement of Attainment and a TAFE NSW Transcript listing unit of competency successfully completed will be sent direct to attendees from TAFE, not WCRA

Booking Details
Organisation & Email		Email:
Contact Person Name & Phone No.		Phone:
Total Amount (Inclgd. GST)	$	$375 per Attendee
Payment Type (please tick)	Visa () MasterCard () Amex () EFT ()
Credit Card Holder
Credit Card Number		Expiry Date /
Signature

	Attendee Name(s)	USI Number	Phone Contact	Email Address
1
2
3
4

Waste Contractors and Recyclers Association of NSW
 ABN 72 805 135 472
 PO Box 6643 Wetherill Park BC NSW 2164
 P: 02 9604 7206 E: memberservices@wcra.com.au

OFFICE USE ONLY
PAID BY INVOICE #